K 1 - Sri. C. N. Currie, the payee in this case, was granted a total advance of Rs. 1496/- under the scheme of financial assistance to evacuees and their dependents. From the records of this office it is seen that the individual has sufficient funds at his credit in two of the local banks, viz: Catholic Bank, Mangalore and Indian Bank, Mangalore. I have, therefore, asked the Tahsildar Mangalore, to hold confidential enquiry and report the actual amount now standing in his credit in the above banks with a view to file a civil suit against the individual.
Further action will be taken on receipt of the report of the tahsildar Mangalore.

Yours faithfully,

In continuation of this office Ref.C.No.A9. 6450/47 dated 21-3-52, I submit that the confidential enquiries held by the Tahsildar Mangalore, show that a sum of Rs.897-1-0 only stands to the credit of the individual in S.B.Acct. No.20/90 in the Catholic Bank, Mangalore, and that the evacuee had withdrawn his funds from the Indian Bank, Mangalore. I am of opinion that though there seems to be no chances of recovering the full amount advanced to him, a suit may be filed with a view to attach the amount of Rs.897-1-0 standing to his credit in the Catholic Bank, Mangalore. I have, therefore, requested the Government Pleader, Mangalore to prepare a draft plaint. Further action will be taken on receipt of the draft plaint from the Government Pleader.

The Government of India have, in their letter cited second above, communicated a copy of the Notification authorising the Collector of South Kanara to file a suit in the court of the District Munsif Hosdrug against the defaulter Sri C.H. Currie, for the recovery of evacuee allowance of Rs. 1496/- due from him. The Government Pleader Mangalore who was consulted in the matter states that as the cause of action arose in Mangalore the suit has to be filed in the court of the District Munsif, Mangalore, and that it cannot be filed in the court of the District Munsif Hosdrug. He adds that the suit cannot be filed in Mangalore with the above notification as there is a technical irregularity in the Notification. A fresh notification is, therefore, requested authorising me to file the suit in the court of the District Munsif, Mangalore. The proposals for the fresh notification were not submitted earlier, as the former Government Pleader, Mangalore was of opinion that no fresh notification was required. The facts of the case have been reported in this office reference cited first above. I therefore, request that a fresh notification authorising me to file the suit in the court of the District Munsif Mangalore, may kindly be obtained from the Government of India and communicated to me.
